PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO COMPEL THE CITY OF CHICAGO TO PROVIDE RESIDENCE ADDRESSES OF THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS

NOW COMES the Plaintiff, MICHAEL THOMPSON, by and through his attorney, BASILEIOS J. FOUTRIS, and respectfully requests this Honorable Court to compel the Defendant, CITY OF CHICAGO, to provide the residence addresses of the Individual Defendants in this matter so that the Plaintiff may immediately serve them pursuant to the Court's December 11, 2007 Order, in support thereof, states as follows:

1. The Plaintiff filed this lawsuit on November 1, 2007 seeking compensation for the damages he incurred following his wrongful arrest.
2. At the time of the filing of this lawsuit the undersigned had a second lawsuit pending against Officers Lepine and Glowacki for their role in the shooting death of Tommy Morris (Case No. 07 C 3409). As such, the undersigned contacted the attorney representing those two individuals in that matter to inquire whether the individual defendants in the present matter would waive service of summons and file appearances in this matter.
3. The attorney representing Officers Lepine and Glowacki in the other matter indicated that he did not believe that he would represent them in this matter (nor did he believe he would represent any other defendant in this matter).

4. The undersigned was advised that the individuals would not waive service. Instead, the undersigned was directed to follow the Chicago Police Department's protocol for service of summons upon Chicago police officers- namely, that notices of lawsuit should be mailed to Chicago Police Department headquarters so that the Police Department could serve the individual defendants.

5. Therefore, on November 8, 2007, the undersigned sent Notices of Lawsuit and Waivers of Service of Summons to each of the individually named Defendants at 3510 S. Michigan, Chicago, IL 60653.

6. To date, none of the individually named defendants have appeared in this matter. In addition, to date, the Plaintiff has not been contacted by anyone that represents the individual defendants in this matter to discuss a responsive pleading.

7. In order to comply with this Court's December 11, 2007 Order, the Plaintiff will need the individual defendants' residence addresses. The Plaintiff was unable to confer with anyone from the City of Chicago regarding obtaining the addresses – and therefore avoiding this motion – because nobody has entered an appearance for the Defendant CITY OF CHICAGO.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff, MICHAEL THOMPSON, respectfully requests this Honorable Court to compel the Defendant, CITY OF CHICAGO, to provide the residence addresses of the Individual Defendants in this matter so that the Plaintiff may immediately serve them pursuant to the Court's December 11, 2007 Order.
